What Are You Most Looking Forward to When Social Distancing is Over?

Glenda White at First Bank will enjoy getting out to visit existing customers and make calls to potential customers.

Julia at G & N Mini Storage is looking forward to visiting our local breweries when they reopen but for now occasionally enjoy localoaktogo drive-up service.

Robin at the Postal Annex is looking forward to not having to wear a mask.

Karen at Coldwell Banker Realty says it has been business as usual for them. Real estate never stopped.

Josh Sweeley of Edward Jones looks forward to being able to meet with people face to face again.

Rob Goldberg of Pitt Community College will be glad to see co-workers and students in person. It will also be great to see everything that typically happens at PCC outside of the classroom such as award ceremonies, intercollegiate athletics return to normal.

Nauti Dog will be happy to see downtown Winterville come back to life and to catch up with everyone.

Down South Accounting is looking forward to visiting with family and friends!

Winterville Baptist Church is looking forward to having the congregation together in one building!

Greenville Vacuum & Sewing is looking forward to taking a break from all the work they've been doing.

Tony Moore at NCDS looks forward to sporting events.

What Have You Missed the Most?

Glenda White with First Bank - Face to Face interactions with customers.

Julia Keville with G & N Mini Storage - One thing I am looking forward to (other than seeing and hugging my grandchildren) is rehearsals on Tuesday evenings with the Greenville Choral Society.

Robin at the Postal Annex - Hugging my customers!

Karen at Coldwell Banker Realty - Being able to come and go as you please and supporting the local businesses that have been closed.

Josh Sweeley of Edward Jones - I have most missed meeting with clients face to face.

Pitt Community College - will miss graduation the most. It's an annual celebration of their students' achievements that gives their families and college employees a chance to recognize their hard work. While Pitt is still putting together a virtual graduation ceremony that will begin airing June 1, it won't quite be the same as seeing nearly 1,000 happy graduates dressed in PCC Blue gowns being cheered by several thousand supporters.

Alton Wadford of PCC - For me personally, it is has been not having my office with everything I need. Working from home is a lot harder than it sounds!

Nauti Dog - Our customers!! We get a chance to see them for a brief time when they stop by for pickup but its not the same. We really miss sitting down and talking with everyone.

Debbie Avery of Winterville Chamber - Hugs from my grand-girls!

Comments from your Chamber Director

Many thanks to our members who responded to our questions. I believe the most common response from everyone was about missing our people whether it was customers, clients, congregations or families. Maybe when things get back to normal we will all slow down our schedules a little and enjoy the people that make us happy. Maybe we will be a little kinder and more generous and be thankful for what this pandemic has taught us about life and what is really important to us. Remember to shop locally when you can and support our Chamber members. The Chamber thanks you for your continued support and remember as always, my business is making your business better. If I can assist you in anyway, please contact me at 531-4590 or davery60@hotmail.com. Have a Happy Mother's Day!!!
